December 2023

John Hoheusle, President/BA

As we approach the end of another year, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for your unwavering dedication and hard work. It has been a truly remarkable year, and the achievements we've made together are a testament to the strength and unity of our union.

Throughout the past twelve months, we have faced various challenges, navigated uncertainties, and achieved milestones that have positively impacted our collective goals. Your commitment to the principles of solidarity, fairness, and mutual support has been the driving force behind our success.

Together, we negotiated fair contracts for two of our properties and are working on a third. Your participation in union activities, whether it be attending meetings, voicing your concerns, or supporting your fellow members, has made a significant difference in the workplace and beyond.

Our union is not just an organization; it is a community of individuals who believe in the power of collective action. Your enthusiasm, resilience, and collaboration have not only strengthened our union but have also created a positive and supportive work environment for all members.

As we reflect on the accomplishments of this year, let us also look forward to the opportunities and challenges that the coming year might bring. I am confident that, with your continued commitment and engagement, we will overcome any obstacles and achieve even greater success.

Thank you for the hard work, dedication, and the spirit of unity that defines our union. Your contributions have made this year truly exceptional, and I am grateful to have each of you as a valuable member of our union family.

Wishing you and your loved ones a joyful holiday season and a prosperous New Year. May the spirit of solidarity continue to guide us in years to come.

Thank you,

John Hoheusle
